Example: Thanksgiving Through the Lens of Native Americans
Today: Lesson Plan | PBS NewsHour

In this lesson plan, students will learn about the meaning of Thanksgiving through the lens of today’s Wampanoag people, the descendants of the Native American tribes who welcomed the Pilgrims at Plymouth nearly 400 years ago. Then students will examine current issues facing the Wampanoags, including the continued fight for their ancestral lands and the preservation of their native language.

The First Official Thanksgiving – airs 11/24 at 5 p.m. - https://ny.pbslearningmedia.org/resource/ba236900-f95c-4ab7-a3d1-ef7e5ce8e72/the-first-official-thanksgiving/ - tells the story of what some historians might call the first "official, English-speaking" Thanksgiving held in the Americas. THE FIRST OFFICIAL THANKSGIVING challenges the long-held belief that America's first Thanksgiving was held in Plymouth, Mass., and chronicles how the discovery of the Nibley papers led to a friendly rivalry between Virginia and Massachusetts about who can rightfully lay claim to the birth of America's Thanksgiving holiday.

America's Test Kitchen: 20th Anniversary Special – airs 11/24 at 8 p.m. (repeats 11/26 at 5 p.m.) - https://www.americastestkitchen.com/ - This year, America's Test Kitchen, the longest-running and most successful cooking show on public television, celebrates its 20th year on the air. To commemorate this remarkable milestone, we've filmed an anniversary special that features our all-time best recipes (voted on by you, the viewers!), along with the cast members' behind-the-scenes stories from their time in the test kitchen. You'll also hear from some of America's Test Kitchen's biggest fans and see brand-new footage of the cast—even Jack and Adam—in the kitchen, preparing some of your favorite recipes.

Surviving Thanksgiving with Sara Moulton – airs 11/24 at 7 p.m. (repeats 11/25 at 5 p.m.) - https://saramoulton.com/ - Thanksgiving is the biggest, most intimidating meal of the year for most cooks, full of potential catastrophes. This year, chef, cookbook author and television personality Sara Moulton offers time-saving tips and techniques in her one-hour special SURVIVING THANKSGIVING WITH SARA MOULTON. Using a calm, warm, and reassuring manner, the James Beard nominee takes viewers through the big meal step by step, with foolproof tips for avoiding the biggest culinary mistakes come Thanksgiving Day. Sara begins with suggestions on which cooking equipment to use, shows how to cook the turkey so it's never dry, and how to prep the gravy and mashed potatoes ahead of time to avoid having everything to do at the last minute. Plus, she introduces recipes for three unique, easy and delicious side dishes.

The Plastics Problem: PBS NewsHour Presents – airs 11/27 at 10 p.m. - https://www.pbs.org/newshour/tag/the-plastic-problem - With 40 percent of all plastic products used only once, plastic pollution is considered one of the largest environmental threats facing humans and animals globally. This program explores what's being done about our extensive appetite for damaging single-use plastic. Traveling from Boston to Seattle -- and reporting from the Pacific shores of Costa Rica to the rocky beaches of Easter Island --PBS NewsHour's reporting team uncovered not only the extensive environmental damage plastic has already caused, but also innovations and solutions in plastic management.

Little Women on Masterpiece - https://www.pbs.org/wgbh/masterpiece/shows/little-women/ - Based on the classic novel by Louisa May Alcott and loved by generations of women worldwide, "Little Women" is a universal coming-of-age story. Set against the backdrop of the Civil War, the story follows sisters Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy March on their journey from childhood to adulthood. With the help of their mother, Marmee -- and while their father is away at war -- the girls navigate what it means to be a young woman: from sibling rivalry and first love to loss and marriage. This adaptation is from the award-winning creator of "Call the Midwife," Heidi Thomas, who also wrote "Cranford" and the latter-day "Upstairs Downstairs" for Masterpiece.

Part One – airs 11/28 at 8 p.m. - With their father away at war, sisters Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy March come to terms with their new life, alongside their mother, Marmee. The girls make friends with Laurie, the new boy next door.

Part Two – airs 11/28 at 9 p.m. - The March family fears the worst when Mr. March falls ill. As circumstances change for Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy, the family must come together to face their most difficult challenge yet.

Part Three – airs 11/28 at 10 p.m. - The March family fears the worst when Mr. March falls ill. As circumstances change for Meg, Jo, Beth and Amy, the family must come together to face their most difficult challenge yet.

America ReFramed #713 “Perfectly Normal for Me” – AIRS 11/2 at 10 p.m.; 11/3 at 2 a.m.; 11/3 at 9 a.m.; 11/3 at 2 p.m. - https://www.pbs.org/show/americareframed/ - Joyce Drexler teaches how one quilt design makes many beautiful and very different quits using creative theme fabrics. Print project fabric for special occasions and special people, then make fringe and trim with Karla Herrin.

Reel South #305 “Jonah Stands Up” – AIRS 11/2 at 11 p.m.; 11/3 at 3 a.m.; 11/3 at 10 a.m.; 11/3 at 6 p.m. - https://www.pbs.org/show/reel-south/ - Film by: Hannah Engelson. Jonah Bascle was an unconventional mayoral candidate, even by New Orleans standards: artist, comedian, disability-rights activist. Born with muscular dystrophy, Jonah raced against mortality throughout his twenties. Combining humor, political action, and a sense of urgency, Jonah Stands Up challenges stereotypes associated with differently-abled individuals in New Orleans.

WXXI Kids 24/7

Potter’s Field airs 11/21 at 4-4:30 a.m. - https://facebook.com/ThePottersFieldFilm/ - In 2012, a thousand once-forgotten burials were excavated under a parking lot at a San Jose hospital. Now anthropologists at California State University, Chico study how the skeletons could offer insight into navigating a future of antibiotic resistance.

Historic Attuck Theatre airs 11/21 4:30-5 a.m. pbs.org/video/the-historic-attucks-theatre-apollo-of-the-south-8kyomk/ - One of Hampton Roads’ greatest treasures, the Attucks Theatre, turns 100 years old. Musicians of the greatest caliber have performed at the Attucks, legends like Duke Ellington, Cab Calloway, Ella Fitzgerald and Nat King Cole just to name a few. The 600-seat venue was an instant source of pride to Norfolk’s Black Community. It was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 1982.

The Land Will Outlive Us All airs 11/26 at 3-4 a.m. - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iF7tSx2_2zQ - Singer-songwriter Susan Werner tackles the challenges of rural life in America with powerful lyrics and melodies on her Hayseed album, a song cycle about "farms, farmers, and the people who love them." Recorded at performance venues in small towns across Nebraska, features Susan's special brand of insightful Americana music that communicates beyond farm country to audiences seeking an authentic voice about what is still real and tangible in America.

Ride airs 11/27 at 2-3 a.m. - Do you remember your first carousel ride? Wendy Kirbey does, and when her hometown needed an economic boost she had an idea: build a carousel, from scratch, using old world craftsmanship. See how this idea transforms the community when a group of dedicated volunteers come together to design, hand carve and paint all of the animals needed to complete what many believe will be one of the most beautiful carousels ever created.

Walking into the Unknown airs 11/27 at 4:30-5 a.m. - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C7Q_aukkJYM - Discover the untold story of South Asian Punjabi women and their contributions to California over the last century.

The Little Concert Series

Vibist, Joe Locke

Friday, Nov. 22

8 p.m.—doors open at 7 p.m.

VIP Tickets: $90; includes meet-and-greet-reception 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. day of the show with beer, wine, appetizers, early seat choice before doors open to general admission, 1983 Joe Locke album recorded live at The Little, mini poster of the show

General admission tickets: $40

Tickets available at thelittle.org and at The Little box office

The concert is part of The Little’s 90th anniversary celebration, and also serves as an ode to the theater’s illustrious history.

Locke recorded a live vinyl album at The Little, “In Front of the Silver Screen,” in June 1983. The album from The Joe Locke-Phil Markowitz Quartet opens with "Restless Dreams," and includes six songs. As noted on the record’s liner notes, Markowitz taught Locke at The Hochstein School in Rochester. Locke is a six-time recipient of the Jazz Journalists Association’s “Mallet Instrumentalist of the Year” Award, has received two Earshot Golden Ear Awards for “Concert of the Year” and the 2013 Hot House NYC Jazz Awards for Best Vibes Player, and keeps topping critics and readers polls. In 2016, Locke was honored with the induction into the Music Hall of Fame of his hometown Rochester.

He describes his latest release Subtle Disguise (Origin Records, 2018) as “the total expression of who I am as a musician and human being”. The album features Jim Ridl, Lorin Cohen and Samvel Sarkisyan — all formidable musicians in their own right and hugely important to the development of this project — who will be joining Joe for this special night at The Little.
