4 Part Educator Series on PBS American Portrait. It is a national story-telling project that invites people across the country to use photos, videos and words to tell their own stories and illustrate who we are as a people. In this four part virtual professional learning series, teachers will be invited to think about how they might use the American Portrait in their classrooms and encourage their students to think more concretely about who we are as individuals, and who we are as a people. The series takes place at 7PM on 4/7, 4/14, 4/21, and 4/28.

MISSIONS “For Crown or Colony?” puts players in the shoes of Nat Wheeler, a printer’s apprentice in 1770 Boston. They encounter both Patriots and Loyalists, and when rising tensions result in the Boston Massacre, they must choose where their loyalties lie. A brand-new version of this game is now available!

In “Flight to Freedom,” players take on the role of Lucy, a 14-year-old girl enslaved in Kentucky who escapes to Ohio. As Lucy joins a community of abolitionists, players discover that life in the “free” North is dangerous and difficult. In 1850, the Fugitive Slave Act threatens all African Americans in the North and brings new urgency to the anti-slavery movement.

In “A Cheyenne Odyssey,” players become Little Fox, a Northern Cheyenne boy whose life is changed by the encroachment of white settlers, railroads, and U.S. military expeditions. As buffalo diminish and the U.S. expands westward, players experience the Cheyenne’s persistence through conflict and national transformation.

In “City of Immigrants,” players navigate New York’s Lower East Side as Lena, a young Jewish immigrant from Russia. Trying to save money to bring her parents to America, she works long hours in a factory for little money and gets caught up in the growing labor movement.

In “Up from the Dust,” players take on the roles of twins Frank and Ginny Dunn, whose family wheat farm is devastated by the Great Depression and Dust Bowl. As they experience the hardships of the 1930s, players learn about Americans’ strategies for survival – as individuals, communities, and a nation. “Up from the Dust” is available online and as free iPad and Windows 10 apps.
Community screenings for Indie Lens Pop Up are cancelled - alternatives for screenings/panel talk-back are being discussed—keep checking wxxi.org/events for updates.

Watch the following on WXXI TV 21.1

- Bedlam- Monday, April 13

  Filmmaker and practicing psychiatrist, Ken Rosenberg visits ERs, jails, and homeless camps to examine our national mental health crisis. Rosenberg follows the poignant stories of people grappling with schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, and other chronic psychiatric conditions, whose silence and shame often worsen the suffering.

- Asian Americans—This five-part series premieres May 11

  Led by a team of Asian American filmmakers, including Academy Award®-nominated series producer Renee Tajima-Peña (Who Killed Vincent Chin?, No Más Bebés), Asian Americans examines the significant role of Asian Americans in shaping American history and identity, from the first wave of Asian immigrants in the 1850s and identity politics during the social and cultural turmoil of the twentieth century to modern refugee crises in a globally connected world.

Join WXXI as we celebrate the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment throughout the year. This will be a remarkable year for women's rights and WXXI will lead the celebration through TV, radio, online and film programming – plus news reports, special segments, and discussions. wxxi.org/2020

Students who have already submitted are fine (we might have even listened already!) and please do submit early if you can. This extension will alter our judging period, so we are now aiming to have winners by the end of May.

As a reminder, here's how the NPR Student Podcast Challenge works: Put together a podcast with your class or extracurricular group. Then your teacher can submit it to us. This contest is for teachers with students between 5th and 12th grade. Each podcast should be between three and 12 minutes long. The winning podcast submissions will be featured in segments on Morning Edition or All Things Considered. Here are all the rules.

If you are still working on a podcast while learning from home here is an article about mobile apps students are using to make their podcasts. We also have a video about how to turn any space into a recording studio.

Classical Radio Highlights

Now in its fifth year, Performance Rochester on Classical 91.5 will present live performances from concert halls in and around Rochester and from the studios of WXXI-FM Classical 91.5. Performances and ensembles will soon to be announced. We’ll highlight one group each day beginning in early April in all dayparts.

SPECIALS:
Hochstein at 100, Wednesday, 4/8/20, 12:10p. The Hochstein School has been a center for learning music and dance in Rochester now for 100 years. Hear the stories and music that connect this community school to the history of our city over the past century - from its origins as a settlement school to teach music to immigrant children in Rochester, through years of growth and development to suit the changing needs of Rochester’s communities, to its role today as a place to learn and experience music, dance, and more.

Rachmaninov’s All-Night Vigil, Sunday, 4/12/20, 1:00-2:00p
This spiritual, haunting Vespers program is an a capella setting of texts taken from the Russian Orthodox All-Night Vigil ceremony, perfectly suited to the Easter season. Performed in Russian by the Moscow State Chorus and soloists and hosted by Valerie Kahler. Rachmaninov’s setting uses multiple styles of traditional chant, while demonstrating the complex use of harmony, textural variety and polyphony so well-known in Russian choral music.

4/1/20 – Sunday Baroque airs 10a-1p; Classical Music with Joshua Bassette will air 2-3pm ONLY on 4/12)

Safe Haven airs 4/1 at 1 a.m. (4/15 at 2 a.m.) (4/22 at 1 a.m.)  - https://www.pbs.org/video/wxxi-documentaries-safe-haven/

- Tells the story of America's only refugee shelter for Holocaust survivors on US Library of Congress grounds. Raised in a musical household in the Bronx, Flory Jagoda was an American musician who dedicated her life to preserving and sharing the music of her family's cultural heritage. Her strength of spirit shines through her challenging but ultimately triumphant story. Her family's cultural legacy through their music. Her strength of spirit shines through her challenging but ultimately triumphant story.

The Windermere Children airs 4/5 at 10 p.m.  - https://www.pbs.org/show/windermere-children/

- Child survivors of the Holocaust are brought to an estate near England's Lake Windermere to recuperate with the help of volunteer therapists. Without their families, they find kinship in each other and form bonds that give them hope for the future. The incredible escape story of 90 young people comes to a close in this film, which features interviews with the last remaining survivors of the Nazi's only death camp.

Eva: A7063 airs 4/20 at 9 p.m.  - https://www.pbs.org/video/eva-nyzt6/

- EVA: A-7063 is the incredible true story of an Auschwitz survivor's journey to forgiveness and healing. At the age of 10, Eva Mozes Kor fought to stay alive inside the concentration camp where her sister Miriam was being experimented on as one of "Mengele's twins." After decades of torment and pain following her liberation, she came to the epiphany that she needed to forgive the Nazis to move forward with her life.

Escape from Nazi Death Camp airs 4/8 at 1 a.m. (4/29 at 1 a.m.)  - https://www.pbs.org/show/escape-nazi-death-camp/

- October 14th 2013 was the 70th anniversary of an event that shook the Nazi party to its core. In east Poland, at the remote Nazi death camp of Sobibor, 300 Jewish prisoners staged a bloody break out. To mark the anniversary, this film travels back to Sovibor with the last remaining survivors to reveal their extraordinary story of courage, desperation and determination. The film uses brutally honest drama-reconstruction and first hand testimony to reveal the incredible escape story. The multi-layered plot unfolds like a Hollywood blockbuster -- from the last-minute change to the escape plan forced by an unexpected arrival of a train load of SS soldiers, to the systematic luring of individual camp guards to separate locations and different, highly creative deaths, yet every terrible and inspiring moment of this story is absolutely true.

Flory's Flame airs 4/15 at 1 a.m.  - Flory's Flame weaves the life story of 90-year old Sephardic US National Heritage Fellow musician Flory Jagoda with her 2013 Celebration Concert at the US Library of Congress. Raised in a musical household in Bosnia, her family roots go back centuries before the Jewish expulsion from Spain in 1492. As the sole surviving family member after World War II, Flory's mission has been to continue her family's cultural legacy through their music. Her strength of spirit shines through her challenging but ultimately triumphant story.

WXXI American Graduate: Getting to Work

Salinas Project airs 4/13 at 2 a.m - https://www.kcet.org/shows/the-salinas-project/episodes/the-salinas-project

Profiles several children of migrant farm workers living in Alisal. Without resources, and sometimes undocumented, their future looks uncertain yet they cling to the hope of a better life. The film goes beyond the mainstream media representations to shine a light on the problems in East Salinas and highlight the successes of this often marginalized community. In the face of adversity, the young people of Salinas strive to improve their social and economic realities by educating themselves and changing their lives, one generation at a time.

Shots Fired airs 4/20 at 2 a.m.
https://www.pbs.org/video/local-show-shots-fired-part-1/

Shots Fired is a short documentary about courage, communications and resilience in the face of a school shooting.

Under 4 trees airs 4/20 at 2:30 a.m.

A Zulu community in rural South Africa had no school and enlisted Nomusa Zikhali to create one, with only four trees to shelter the children as they begin their studies. UNDER FOUR TREES is also the story of Thuli and Siyabonga who share their dreams and how Mrs. Zikhali and the Nkomo Primary School influenced their lives. Mrs. Zikhali has successfully built an educational complex for 960 children that created a powerful and sustainable change in her Zulu community. This story shows the transformative power of education.

WXXI Public Media and the Little Theatre are proud to invite entries for the 2020 Rochester Teen Film Festival, a collaborative, juried media competition for youth (13–18 years old) in the Rochester region. Entries due June 12, 2020. Submitted with an entry form at: WXXI.org/TeenFilmFestival

The festival honors the work of urban, suburban and rural teen filmmakers and give young people an authentic opportunity to participate in a real film festival. All finalists’ films will be shown at the Little Theatre.

The festival is open to all 13–18 year olds in the greater Rochester area.
