I am the Migration
Friday, July 3 at 3:00 pm on WXXI Classical
 The American rail system is a metaphor for how culture has changed over the centuries. Movement is freeing, because you escape certain oppressions, but it also leaves holes in your personal memory that you have a hard time overcoming. For violinist, composer and Eastman Alumn Curtis Stewart, creation is a way of overcoming. To celebrate America's 250th anniversary, Stewart looked to his own family's American story and used it as inspiration for his new set of 24 American Caprices.

Sing Democracy Friday, July 3 at 6:00 pm on WXXI Classical
