WXXI CLASSICAL MEMORIES

As we continue down FM 91.5's Memory Lane we find more great moments from our archives.

Public radio listeners are very familiar with on-air membership campaigns. But in the early days of FM 91.5 no one knew exactly how to do them, or if they would even work. This photo shows some of the early on-air announcers on FM 91.5, including Larry Richardson, '76 (center on horse), taken on the Seabreeze Carousel as a promotional poster for "The Great Warhorse Orgy," one of the station's first fundraising gimmicks where the station played nothing but classical warhorses from 6:00am to midnight, while asking listeners for their support – and it worked! Several classical hosts and managers joined the FM 91.5 staff through the years in the month of November, including James Aldrich-Moodie 2022. Jeanne Fisher 1996, Steve Stonewell 1995, John Proffitt 1979, Marty Buchsbaum 1976, and Richard Gladwell 1974. Speaking of Richard, he had amassed a huge collection of more than 6,000 records and over 4,000 CDs over his lifetime, many of which are still used in the production of "With Heart and Voice," which he hosted for 30 years. Richard passed away in October of 2009 but "With Heart and Voice" has continued on WXXI Classical 91.5 FM in his honor.
