WXXI Classical Presents: Dear Lara
Saturday, October 10 at 3:30pm (Doors at 2:30pm)
The Little Theatre, 240 East Avenue
Tickets on sale now at thelittle.org

In 2019, renowned violinist Lara St. John spoke out about the sexual assault she endured as a 14-year-old student at the elite Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. After her story was published in The Philadelphia Inquirer, she was flooded with letters and outreach from fellow survivors. Determined to make these voices heard, Lara traveled across North America and Europe to meet others who, like her, were failed by the very organizations meant to protect them.

Dear Lara is a deeply personal documentary that exposes decades of sexual abuse and institutional complicity in the classical music world.

A discussion will follow WXXI Classical music director Mona Seghatoleslami, with Lara St. John and Katherine Needleman. The movie has captions, and the discussion will have ASL interpreters. A counselor from RESTORE will be on hand.

WXXI Classical Presents is a series of films that are related to classical music in some way, co-produced by WXXI Classical and The Little Theatre. Selected by classical music hosts Brenda Tremblay, Mona Seghatoleslami, and Steve Johnson each film chosen exemplifies the power of music in an exciting or non-traditional narrative way.
