WXXI is proud to host a neighborhood screening series that brings people together for community-driven conversations around films from the award-winning PBS series. Formerly known as Community Cinema, the long-running screening series has been renamed Indie Lens Pop-Up. Held at the Little Theatre (240 East Avenue, Rochester, NY), these free screenings will be followed by lively panel discussions to encourage dialogue on social issues.

October 23 at 6:30—8:30 p.m. at The Little Theatre—

A Town Called Victoria—On January 28, 2017, a mosque in South Texas erupted in flames. Now, this quiet community must reckon with the deep rifts that drove a man to hate. Stay tuned.

Invite Your Local High School Educators to Take Part of the NOVA Science Studio 2023-2024 Program!

The NOVA Science Studio program empowers students to use their skills and tell engaging stories about science through short-form video. NOVA Science Studio is NOVA’s first project to create educational resources to teach science journalism and communication to high school teens aged 14-18. Check out some of the videos that have come out of this program in previous years!

Beginning in Fall 2023, the NOVA Science Studio program will be adapted into a decentralized model, where schools will sign up to participate and can access the curriculum directly through PBS LearningMedia. NOVA will provide video production templates, resources, and guidelines for student videos including video formatting and the use of third party materials.

YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH

Now Return Us To Normal airs 9/25 at 9 p.m. on WXXI-HD—In this healing personal essay documentary, a filmmaker and her fellow classmates confront the trauma brought on by their years at a behavior modification boarding school. At 16-years-old, Leslie Koren was struck by severe clinical depression and seemingly overnight, transformed from a socially active and healthy teenager to someone who was unable to function. Overwhelmed and leery of institutional options, Koren’s parents sent her to Oakley School, an isolated free form boarding program for “problem youth” near Park City, Utah. https://www.videoproject.org/now-return-us-to-normal.html

My Ascension airs 9/25 at 10:30 p.m. on WXXI-HD—at 16 years old, varsity cheerleader Emma Benoit attempted to end her life. MY ASCENSION is the story of the day that changed Emma’s life, and everything that’s happened since. For Years, Emma quietly struggled with anxiety and depression, too ashamed to share her pain with family or friends. Through navigating the challenges of recovery, she discovers purpose and passion in helping other struggling teens. The film does not shy away from the difficult realities of the ongoing youth suicide crisis, but shares valuable resources to help keep teens safe. https://www.myascension.us/

Facing Suicide airs 9/28 at 4:30 p.m. on WXXI-HD—FACING SUICIDE combines the poignant personal stories of people impacted by suicide with profiles of scientists at the forefront of research to reveal new insights into one of America’s most pressing mental health crises. Shining a light on this difficult topic can destigmatize suicide while revealing that there is help as well as hope for those at risk and their loved ones. https://www.pbs.org/show/facing-suicide/

Scattering CJ airs 9/30 at 5 p.m.—on WXXI-HD—Grieving mom, Hallie Twomey, put a call out on Facebook after losing her veteran son, CJ, to suicide. Her request: To honor her son’s memory by scattering his ashes in as many amazing places as possible. The request went viral. A global community formed to scatter CJ’s ashes in thousands of locations worldwide, helping Hallie find the courage to become a powerful voice in the fight against suicide. Out of Exile—The Photography of Fred Stein airs 9/4 at 9 p.m.—the Photography of Fred Stein is the tale of a man caught up in one of history’s darkest moments. The Nazi menace thrust Fred Stein into a life of exile: in 1930s Paris; across the war-torn French countryside; and in 1940s New York. Always full of belief in the human spirit, his answer was to create thousands of brilliant photographs, an art that transcends bigotry. https://www.fredsteinmovie.com/

Ruth Stone’s Vast Library of the Female Mind airs 9/5 at 1 a.m.—Ruth Stone was a promising young poet when her husband suddenly committed suicide. Destitute, with three daughters to support, she traveled the country teaching, but always returned to her farmhouse in Vermont. Using animation by granddaughter Bianca Stone, archival footage, and candid interviews with Ruth, her family, and other poets, the film is an intimate portrait of a great American poet. https://www.pbs.org/show/ruth-stones-vast-library-female-mind/

Frank Lloyd Wright: The Man Who Built America airs 9/5 at 4 p.m.—Leading Welsh architect Jonathan Adams sets off across America to explore Frank Lloyd Wright’s masterpieces and the Welsh roots that shaped both his life and signature designs. Throughout his seven-decade career, Frank Lloyd Wright built over five hundred buildings and changed the face of modern architecture. https://www.pbs.org/show/frank-lloyd-wright-man-who-built-america/

Frank Lloyd Wright’s Boynton House: The Next Hundred Years airs 9/5 at 5 p.m.—This beautifully shot documentary spotlights the restoration of Boynton House—the Frank Lloyd Wright house located on East Boulevard in Rochester, New York. https://www.wxxi.org/boyntonhouse

A Season to Remember: The Baseball Boys of Mon City airs 9/6 at 4:30 a.m.—Through memories of surviving players and archival game footage, this film tells the poignant story of the Monongahela (a.k.a. “Mon City”) All-Star Team who won the Pennsylvania state championship and was headed to the Little League World Series in Williamsport. https://www.pbs.org/show/season-remember-baseball-boys-mon-city/

The Burren: Heart of Stone airs 9/7 and 9/8 at 3 p.m.—In the countryside of County Clare, Ireland, is the Burren, a mysterious place unlike anywhere else, with deep caves, a stony landscape, and ancient dolmens, ring forts, and castles. The two-part documentary series The Burren: Heart of Stone, narrated by award-winning Irish actor Brendan Gleeson, unveils the secrets hidden in the stones of this dramatic wind-swept countryside.

Alone in the Wilderness airs 9/14 at 3 p.m.—To live in a pristine land unchanged by man...to roam a wilderness through which few other humans have passed...to choose an idyllic site, cut trees and build a log cabin...to be a self-sufficient craftsman, making what is needed from materials available...to be not at odds with the world, but content with one’s own thoughts and company...Thousands have had such a dream, but Richard Proenneke lived them. He found a place, built a cabin, and stayed to become part of the country. This is a simple account of the day-to-day explorations and activities he carried out alone, and the constant chain of nature’s events that kept him company. https://www.dickproenneke.com/

People Places/Restoring a Masterpiece: Renovation of the Eastman Theatre airs 9/18 at 9:30 p.m.—Restoring a Masterpiece: The Renovation of the Eastman Theatre, co-produced by WXXI and Eastman School of Music, is a one-hour documentary that captures the fascinating story of the Eastman Theatre and documents its recent restoration. Narrated by Rochester native, actor and director Philip Seymour Hoffman, the film includes historic photographs, film, video, and live performances. https://www.pbs.org/video/wxxi-presents-restoring-masterpiece-renovation-eastman-theatre/

Secrets of Underground London airs 9/22 at 3 p.m.—On the surface, London is a buzzing, modern metropolis—but underneath lies a secret, hidden world. Secrets of Underground London uncovers 2000 years of subterranean history: a world of ancient caves and perfectly preserved Roman remains; mysterious rivers and gruesome plague pits; impenetrable vaults and top-secret bunkers. Dig deep to unearth some of the most extraordinary stories of the darkest https://www.pbs.org/show/secrets-underground-london/

Kea’s Ark airs 9/22 at 8:30 p.m.—In the 1980s, a three-story ark was built in Newark’s devastated Central Ward. Self-taught artist and engineer Kea Tawana designed and constructed the massive boat by herself using salvaged materials from nearby 19th-century buildings. She worked on the ark for years before city officials took note and demanded its destruction. It no longer exists, but the ark remains a powerful symbol of hope. https://www.pbs.org/show/keas-ark/

VOCES American Historia: The Untold History of Latinos #101 airs 9/19 and #2 airs 9/26 at 9 p.m. - John Leguizamo presents a Latinx-focused side of American history that recontextualizes their contributions to America as inventors, intellectuals, war heroes, and more.

The Revolutionist: Eugene V. Debs airs 9/22 at 10:30 p.m.—Alternately loved and reviled, Eugene Debs was a passionate labor leader and a formidable speaker in a time of great change in the U.S. Born in Terre Haute, Indiana, Debs emerged as a divisive figure when he led the nationwide Pullman Strike in 1894. Seeking an alternative way for workers to gain power, he helped establish the U.S. Socialist Party, and ran as its candidate for president 5 times.

AFFIRM AND AMPLIFY

Raised/Razed airs 9/5 at 9 p.m.—an hour-long documentary that dives deep into the history of Vinegar Hill - Charlottesville, Virginia's oldest African American neighborhood.

American Experience “The Busing Battleground” - airs 9/11 at 9 p.m.—Revisit 1970s Boston, when Black and white students were bused for the first time between neighborhoods to comply with a federal court desegregation order - unleashing violence and racial unrest that would escalate and continue for years.

American Experience” the Harvest” - airs 9/12 at 9 p.m.—Explore what happened when the small Mississippi town of Leland integrated its public schools in 1970. Told through the remembrances of students, teachers and parents, the film shows how the town - and America - were transformed.
America ReFramed brings to life compelling stories, personal voices and experiences that illuminate the contours of our ever-changing country. Since 2012, the series has premiered 170 films - more than half helmed by female makers and a third credited to BIPOC makers - centering stories of the LGBTQ community, people with disabilities, the formerly incarcerated, veterans, immigrants and more.

DOC WORLD brings international documentaries from around the globe to a US audience. The films explore social concerns, cultural touchstones, political hot topics and environmental issues, revealing the commonalities and differences that peoples and cultures experience. Told with authentic voices, the series offers a unique and contemporary window into stories that surprise, inform and delight.

Culled from public television stations and independent producers from across the country, LOCAL, USA is a half-hour series featuring fascinating stories of diverse people, curated around a single theme.

Stories have the power to astonish us, make us laugh and cry, and open our hearts to the world. Hosted by Wes Hazard and Theresa Okokon, STORIES FROM THE STAGE invites storytellers from around the world to share extraordinary tales of what it means to be human. Each episode features both on-stage performances and interviews about their inspirations and craft, and the meaning behind their stories.

LISTEN ON DEMAND

To so many people, [disability] remains a mystery, this very scary and overwhelming topic," says disability rights activist and writer Emily Ladau. "We don't talk about it. We ignore it. We shy away from it. We hide it away. But that's not what we should do when it comes to disability, because it's just something that's part of what makes people who they are." Hear the valuable advice Emily offers in this episode of NPR’s Life Kit.
