April is Jazz Appreciation Month!

Celebrate Jazz Appreciation Month in the classroom with Ken Burns's JAZZ. Jazz celebrates music in the context of the complicated country that gave birth to and influenced it and was in turn transformed by it. This film traces the history of the rise of records, radio, and television, as well as the sufferings of the Great Depression, the nation's sacrifices during two world wars, and our long struggle over civil rights.

Early Childhood Workshop Series

Join NYS Department of Environmental Conservation & WXXI Education for a series of early childhood workshops focused on empowering educators to explore nature with young children in a variety of ways. Participants are invited to register for individual sessions or the full series.

Growing Up WILD is an early childhood education curriculum that builds on children's sense of wonder about nature and invites them to explore wildlife and the world around them. Through a wide range of activities and experiences, Growing Up WILD provides an early foundation for developing positive impressions about the natural world and lifelong social and academic skills.

Wednesday, March 6 from 6-8:00 p.m.

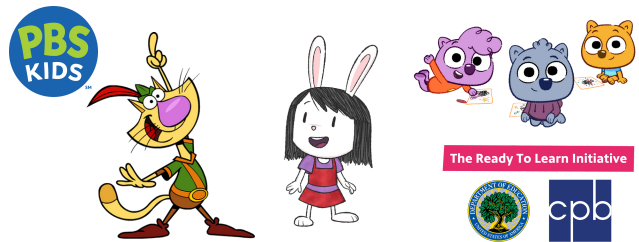

Project WET's "Getting Little Feet WET": Developed in coordination with early childhood experts and educators, Project WET's "Getting Little Feet WET" is designed to help educators of young children teach about water in fun, age-appropriate ways. Through interactive, hands-on activities young children learn to explore different aspects of water-from water properties to water sounds.

Wednesday, April 17 from 6-8:00 p.m.

Project Learning Tree (PLT)'s "Environmental Experiences for Early Childhood" is an interdisciplinary, hands-on curriculum that uses the forest as a window on the world. The session will provide an introduction to environmental education, strategies for encouraging young children to explore, discover and communicate in expressive ways.

Wednesday, May 22 from 6-8:00 p.m.

Building Nature Curiosity with PBS KIDS: Learn how nature resources from PBS KIDS, can help empower children (and their grownups!) to expand their natural curiosity. We'll dive into developmentally-appropriate ways to integrate media to spark creativity, exploration, and playful learning. We'll also discuss how nature exploration can be a great platform for literacy, computational thinking, and social-and-emotional learning.

Wednesday, June 12 from 6-8:00 p.m.

All sessions will take place at Frederick Douglass R-Center
999 South Avenue, Rochester, NY
2.0 hours of New York State CTLE credit will be provided for each session attended.
Registration required, space is limited.

NEW FOR APRIL

WILD KRATTS: Our Blue and Green World, premiering April 1, the Kratt brothers disagree on what's better: blue oceans or green forests. Aviva takes on the role of referee to demonstrate how oceans and forests work together to make our living planet, just like Martin and Chris need to keep working together. It's up to the gang to get Martin and Chris back in sync in time to save planet Earth from Zach and Paisley Paver's villainous plans. Preview here: <https://pbskids.org/video/wild-kratts/3089326946>

NATURE CAT's Nature Movie Special Extraordinaire, debuting April 22, Nature Cat and his friends are trying to figure out what their movie special is about when Sir Galahad (voiced by Chris Parnell), who's now anointed himself King Galahad, begins taking things from nature to make his castle look more beautiful. It's up to the gang to show him a better way to appreciate the natural beauty of their world before he does more damage to their favorite place. The special features three original songs written by Tony, Grammy, and Emmy Award-winning Bill Sherman and performed by the cast: Taran Killam, Kate McKinnon, Bobby Moynihan, and Kate Micucci. See TV Schedules for airing times: <https://wxxi.org/tv-schedule/>

Solar Eclipse Tip

During the eclipse, the moon passes in front of the sun, until it covers the sun's light. This makes a shadow on the earth, and the eclipse can only be seen in the places where the shadow falls.

Durante el eclipse, la luna pasa por delante del sol, hasta tapar la luz solar. Esto crea una sombra sobre la tierra, y el eclipse sólo se puede ver en los lugares donde cae la sombra.

Finding Your Roots: Scholar Series

For more than a decade, renowned Harvard scholar Henry Louis Gates, Jr. has helped to expand America’s sense of itself, stimulating a national conversation about identity with humor, wisdom, and compassion. Professor Gates has explored the ancestry of dozens of influential people from diverse backgrounds, taking millions of viewers deep into the past to reveal the connections that bind us all.

For Finding Your Roots with Henry Louis Gates, Jr., we created the Scholar Series, a series of subject-specific classes to allow educators and their students to learn about topics covered in the entire Finding Your Roots series. The Scholar Series is designed for students and teachers to gain a deeper knowledge of how to incorporate Finding Your Roots into classroom curriculum, as well as benefit from directly engaging with experts in the field around the topics of history, science, and genealogy.

America ReFramed brings to life compelling stories, personal voices and experiences that illuminate the contours of our ever-changing country. Since 2012, the series has premiered 170 films - more than half helmed by female makers and a third credited to BIPOC makers - centering stories of the LGBTQ community, people with disabilities, the formerly incarcerated, veterans, immigrants and more.

DOC WORLD brings international documentaries from around the globe to a US audience. The films explore social concerns, cultural touchstones, political hot topics and environmental issues, revealing the commonalities and differences that peoples and cultures experience. Told with authentic voices, the series offers a unique and contemporary window into stories that surprise, inform and delight.

Culled from public television stations and independent producers from across the country, LOCAL, USA is a half-hour series featuring fascinating stories of diverse people, curated around a single theme.

Stories have the power to astonish us, make us laugh and cry, and open our hearts to the world. Hosted by Wes Hazard and Theresa Okokon, STORIES FROM THE STAGE invites storytellers from around the world to share extraordinary tales of what it means to be human. Each episode features both on-stage performances and interviews about their inspirations and craft, and the meaning behind their stories.

Powerful stories can bring people together despite impossible differences and tumultuous times. From Liz Cheng and Patricia Alvarado Núñez, the executive producers & co-creators of WORLD Channel's STORIES FROM THE STAGE, welcome to THE PODCAST. This audio series features the most memorable stories and in some cases, the 'next chapter' - what happened after storytellers exited the stage.

American Experience “The Murder of Emmett Till” airs 4/15 at 8 p.m.—In August 1955, a 14-year-old Black boy allegedly flirted with a white woman in a grocery store in Money, Mississippi. Emmett Till, a teen from Chicago, didn't understand that he had broken the unwritten laws of the Jim Crow South until three days later, when two white men dragged him from his bed in the dead of night, beat him brutally and then shot him in the head. Although his killers were arrested and charged with murder, they were both acquitted quickly by an all-white, all-male jury. Shortly afterwards, the defendants sold their story, including their tale of how they murdered Till, to a journalist. The murder and the trial horrified the nation and the world. Till's death was a spark that helped mobilize the civil rights movement. Three months after his body was pulled from the Tallahatchie River, the Montgomery bus boycott began. <https://www.pbs.org/wqbh/americanexperience/films/till/>

New York Counts on Public Media

WXXI and public media organizations across New York State have come together to raise awareness about specific issues that impact our communities throughout the state. You can access hours of content through broadcast or on-demand content that provides resources and information about the opioid and overdose epidemic, aging and senior isolation, and student mental health.

Student Mental Health Matters: This multi-platform project shines a light on the importance of student mental health and well-being. As part of this initiative, special programs address student mental health concerns. Also provided specifically for educators is a student mental health toolkit to support the mental well-being of students. This initiative is a New York State Education Department funded initiative that has called on NYS public media organizations to help address the issues of student mental health throughout the state. <https://wxxi.org/topics/teen-mental-health/>

Aging Together in New York: A unique multi-platform storytelling project covering the rise of social isolation among seniors. Aging presents a unique stage of life - one that has not been adequately explored. As life expectancy grows, our society has not kept up with the potential of an added generation of experience - potentially decades beyond age sixty-five. While projected longevity and increased quality of life presents opportunities, there are challenges that need attention now. As we age, we are more likely to live alone and can face barriers to community and connection. Leaving work, the deaths of friends and loved ones, stopping driving, hearing and vision challenges all can isolate older adults from sources of community. Social isolation alone doesn't guarantee loneliness, but it is a significant risk factor. <https://wxxi.org/topics/aging-together-in-new-york/>

The Overdose Epidemic This initiative examines New York State's addiction and overdose crisis. "Overdose Epidemic" programming draws attention to this public health crisis and raise awareness of services available in local communities for those impacted by addiction. This initiative also include collaboration with the New York State Office of Addiction Services and Supports (OASAS) <https://wxxi.org/topics/overdose/>

Independent Lens "One With The Whale" airs 4/23 at 10 p.m.; 4/24 at 2 a.m.—The Apassingoks live on St. Lawrence, a remote Alaskan island in the Bering Sea, with their shy teenage son Chris. Unlike mainland kids, he must regularly miss school and head out in -20°F into the deadly waters to provide food for his family and community elders. Chris is one of the last whale hunters of his generation, a profession now challenged by climate change. When Chris becomes the youngest person to harpoon a whale, the village is ecstatic. His proud mother shares photos with other Native communities on social media, but the family is blindsided when hundreds of hate messages and death threats pour in from online activists around the world. Already emotionally vulnerable and struggling to graduate high school, Chris looks to his family to overcome this intense adversity, especially his older sister Nalu, but she faces her own challenges and must leave the island to find love and happiness. <https://itvs.org/films/one-with-the-whale/>

COMING, FALL OF 2024

PBS KIDS announced CARL THE COLLECTOR, an animated series for children ages 4-8 and its first show featuring a lead character on the autism spectrum. The new series was created by New York Times best-selling illustrator and author Zachariah O'Hara ("My Cousin Momo!") and is produced by Fuzzytown Productions and Spiffy Pictures. Through its stories, the series celebrates the diverse ways kids think and express themselves, while helping them develop a strong sense of self and community. CARL THE COLLECTOR is slated to premiere in Fall 2024 on PBS KIDS.

CARL THE COLLECTOR follows the everyday adventures of Carl, a warm-hearted autistic raccoon who loves collecting things. His talents – a laser-focus pursuit of his goals, attention to detail, and a distinctive way of looking at and experiencing the world around him – have helped him amass a collection for just about every occasion.

WXXI veterans connections

Helping bridge military and veteran needs with community support and awareness

ABOUT: To draw awareness to and address the needs of local veterans has put together this website of resources and programming to assist veterans and also help the community better understand their experiences, challenges, strengths and opportunities.

Our Goal: Helping bridge military and veteran needs with community support and awareness.

- Create a community platform that shares veterans perspectives and programs
- Raise awareness of issues and educate the community about what veterans and their families face.

Use WXXI/Little programming and outreach to connect veterans and their families with area resources.
